

LIFE INSURANCE ASSOCIATION OF MALAYSIA

Name of Newspaper : THE STAR

Section : STARMETRO

Date : 25 July 2017

Toi (third from left) chatting with the children at the gathering as he hands out goody bags to them.

Life insurance body gives to orphans

THE Life Insurance Association of Malaysia (LIAM) celebrated Hari Raya with underprivileged children from four homes.

The children, aged from six to 17 years, were from Pertubuhan Anak Yatim dan Kebajikan Darul Izzah, Kajang; Rumah Bakti Al-Kausar, Bandar Baru Bangi; Philea Homes, Kapar; and Rumah Kids, Klang.

The children received duit raya and goody bags containing a stationery set, notebook, coin box, sports bag, cap, water tumbler and teddy bear.

LIAM president Toi See Jong presented a cheque to the caretakers of the homes during the event at Sasana Kijang, Bank Negara Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur.

Guests were treated to a variety of delicacies such as ketupat, lemang, laksa Johor and pulut durian.

They were also entertained by the children's stage performances and Hari Raya songs.

Also present at the event were BNM Insurance Development Department director Yoon Yew Khuen and Higher Education Ministry Industry Relations Division senior assistant director Subramaniam Krishnasamy.