Association donates RM25,000 to three orphanages at festive do

AS HARI Raya festivities come to an end, some 80 underprivileged children from three orphanages received duit raya and a RM25,000 donation at Life Insurance Association of Malaysia's (LIAM) Hari Raya gathering.

The Raya celebration, held at Sasana Kijang, Bank Negara Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur, was organised by LIAM, which represents 16 insurance and reinsurance companies.

At the event, the children from Pusat Jagaan Suci Rohani, Petaling Jaya; Rumah Anak-anak Yatim Nur Hikmah, Kajang; and Cornerstone Home, Semenyih; entertained the crowd with song and dance performances.

The crowd clapped and cheered as Jessintha Malar, 11, from Cornerstone Home performed energetic Indian dances.

The children and guests were treated to a sumptuous buffet spread as well.

LIAM president Toi See Jong expressed his appreciation for the work done by the principals and caretakers of the orphanages.

"The principals' and caretakers' devotion and sacrifice in caring for the children will go a long way in nurturing them into becoming fine young adults one day," said Toi.

Also present at the event was AmMetLife Insurance chief executive officer Ramzi Toubassy.

Naufal Ahmad, 12, from Pusat

Jagaan Suci Rohani was grateful to receive the duit raya and donations from LIAM.

He enjoyed the variety of food and dessert served at the event.

The donation will be used to buy daily necessities for the children.
